

Spring 2018 GEM Fellows ATMs:

Julie Burkey, Pastoral Theology, Seminary: "Spirituality of Work"

Gregory Floyd, Core: "Applying GEM to 'Introduction to Lonergan's Philosophy and Theology'"

Matthew Graziano, Professional Psychology and Family Therapy: "Applying Lonergan's Method to Human Development and Narrative Research"

Jeffry La Marca, Education: "A Search for Meaning within a Lonerganian Context: A Personal Exploration of Pedagogy, Philosophy, and Empirical Research within the Academic Milieu of Educational Practices"

Marianne Lloyd, Psychology: "Sitting in the Dark to Bring in the Light"

Alan Lucibello, History: "The Search for Human Fulfillment"

Patrick Manning, Pastoral Theology, Seminary: "Applying Lonergan's Method to 'Pastoral Ministry: Introduction'"

Roseanne Mirabella, Political Science: "Lonergan's Group Bias and the Marginalization of Individuals with Intellectual Disabilities: The Complicity of Human Service Agencies in the Continued Privilege of 'Ableism'"

Kathleen Nagle, Speech-Language Pathology: "Applying the Transcendental Method to Clinical Practice in Speech-Language Pathology"

Thomas Rzeznik, History: "Understanding Catholic Understanding"

Mary Patricia Wall, Nursing: "Applying the GEM Method"

Kathryn Wissel, Library: "GEM for Information Literacy and Identifying and Addressing Obstacles to the Quest for Knowledge and Truth"

Debra Zinicola, Education: "Fostering Conscious Intentionality through a GEM Journal"